Threatening sides prevented a number of riders from participating in the drag hunt held under the amptices of the Riding and Hunt Club yesterday afternoon at Chevy Chaos, and only twenty-five members followed the hounds. Despite the amull number of riders, the atmosphere was ideal, and a chase of five miles was held. The pack got away from the Gorden property promptly at 250 o'clock.

Only one mishap marred the event, and it didn't amount to much. Miss Jeannette Allen was the victim of the first cropper of the season, when her mount stumbled in making a jump. She was alded by her companions, and remounted, riding hard to the end.

Among those who participated were Maj. Henry T. Allen, F. S. Key-Smith, Maj. Lowe, John Beali, Capt. Rhodes, J. S. McKennie, Miss Hochanan, Miss McMurray, and the Miss Jeannette and Dasha Allen. Threatening skies prevented a number Novel Entertainment Will Be Presented by New Organization Saturday Evening.

Saturday Evening.

The Players' Club of Washington promises a surprise for lovers of novel entertainment when they produce the European "Cabaret" show in the ballroom of the New Raleigh Hotel, on heat Saturday evening. The "Carabet" performance, which is the latest, flad in New York City, has hever been attempted in Washington.

The "Players' Frolic" was at first impated in Washington. The inferent planned for the entertainment of members of the club only, but the inferent in the new organization, and the desire of friends of the Players' to witness the "Carabet" show became so great that larger quarters had to be secured. In order to carry out the "Carabet" idea the guests seated at the small tables will be permitted to order refreshments a la carte. Danogra, stroling players, musicians, and clowns will perform among the guests in the salet, while on a large slage the regular numbers will be presented in rapid succession and without interntaison until the grand finale which will be unusual in the strangement. "The Star Spungled Busser."

Mrs. Rittenhouse Would Have Plot Called Washington and Jefferson Park.

Jefferson Park.

The Commissioners yesterday afternoon received a letter from Louisa Rittenhouse, of 187 Ningkeanth Street Northwest, urging the indorsement of the bill providing for the changing of the name of Montrose Park, in Georgatown, to that of Washington and Jefferson Park. The Commissioners have the matter under consideration.

"The Washington and Jefferson Park would be an appropriate name for the reservation," reads the letter, "as both great men frequented the old town. The office of George Washington is still in existence—a quaint, well-built Rittle stone structure, from which he and Thomas Jefferson issued the proclamation of March 20, 1781, declaring the site of the Federal City. In the decerway of the hall Washington stood and surveyed the hall Washington stood and surveyed the hold Braddock Road time Wisconsin Avenuel for the French and Indian war."

Mrs. Elitenhouse says that a movement will soon be started by the Daughter of the American Revolution for the removal of the old Washington home to the park site. It was in this house that Washington and Jefferson and Mr. Ell-cett drew up, with Mai, L/Emfant, the plan of the National Capital.

Commissioners Oppose Amendment to Building Regulations.

Upon the recommendation of Morris Hacker, inspector of buildings, the Commissioners yesterday decided not to comply with the request of R. H. Phillips, of 149 H. Street. Northwest, that the building regulations be amended as as to prohibit the painting of party walls without the consent of the owners of the building and the owners of adjoining property.

building and the owners of adjoining property.

Mr. Phillips, in a recent letter to the Commissioners, pointed out the need of an amendment to the building regulations. He said that at present many walls are painted or tarred to the detriment of adjoining property. The complainant stated that many of the gaudy colored walls are extremely objectionable to the eye, and that tarred walls slut off light from adjoining property. In reply to the letter, Mr. Hacker says that the painting or tarring of a wait is a right which should not be denied the owner of the wall.
